GULFSIDE BANK SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT EARNS CFP® CERTIFICATION

SARASOTA, FL (May 11, 2022)—Beth Green, Senior Vice President and Private Banking Director at Gulfside Bank has earned her CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ certification, the bank announced today.

“We’re all very proud of Beth,” says Dennis Murphy, President and CEO of Gulfside Bank. “This was not a requirement of her position, but Ms. Green always goes above and beyond when it comes to increasing her value to her clients this organization.”

“CFP® certification provides a roadmap for advisors to help their clients across all areas of their financial well-being,” says Green. “I look forward to helping our clients make their financial dreams a reality.”

ABOUT CFP®

The Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (CFP Board) announced the results of the March 2022 CFP® Certification Exam on April 26, 2022. The exam was administered during a March 8-15 testing window to 2,705 candidates, with 7% of candidates testing remotely. The pass rate for the March exam was 65%.

Notably, the March 2022 CFP® Certification Exam was the first to test candidates on Psychology of Financial Planning — a new Principal Knowledge Topic that encompasses interpersonal components of financial planning, such as behavioral finance and effective client communication. CFP Board conducts thorough research to ensure the exam's topics reflect current financial planning practices while preparing professionals to better serve their clients.
